LOCAL NEWS.

For his section warmer, fair weather, light to fresh southwesterly winds, becoming northwesterly.

WEDDING.—One of the most brilliant weddings that has taken place here for a long time was that of Miss Rosa Bandheim, of this city, and Mr. Max Fischer, of Washington, at the synagogue, last night. The ceremony was conducted by Rabbi Stern, of Washington, and was witnessed by a large number of ladies and gentlemen from this city, Washington, Baltimore, and elsewhere. The groom is kept-keeper for the firm of Woodward & Lothrop, Washington, and the bride a daughter of Mr. S. Bandheim, a most estimable citizen. The following gentlemen acted as ushers: Messrs. Hoffa, Rubenstein, Saenger and Fishman, of Washington; Goldsmith, of Leesburg; L. Ruten, of Alexandria; M. Hecht, and Col. S. J. Hecht, of Baltimore.

The bride was beautifully arrayed in white satin and real lace en train, with orange blossoms and diamonds, and carried a large bouquet of choice roses. The groom wore the conventional suit.

After the ceremony at the synagogue, the bridal party, with the invited guests, proceeded to McBurney's Hall, where a sumptuous banquet awaited them, after enjoying which, dancing, to the delightful strains of a fine orchestra, was indulged in by all present till an early hour this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Fischer left on the midnight train for their future home in Washington. During the evening the bride and groom received many congratulatory telegrams from friends at a distance. The costumes worn by the ladies were most beautiful, and it was a pleasure to see so many pretty women arrayed in fine dresses. All the ladies deserve special mention, but space will only permit of brief notice:

Miss Sophie Bandheim wore cream satin, lace overdress, with pearl ornaments, and was generally admired.

Mrs. Moses Bandheim, of Richmond, white china silk, salmon overdress, diamonds.

Mrs. M. Preitzfelder, black satin and lace, with jet ornaments.

Miss Kate Mielchebacher, of Richmond, a beautiful blonde, wore Nile green silk, lace and plush trimmings, with diamonds.

Miss Adeline Summers, of Washington, salmon-colored satin, pearls; very pretty.

Miss Leonora Summers, of Washington, white satin, hand-painted insertions, diamonds.

Miss Sara Bandheim, cream satin, crystal front.

Miss Lena Heller, canary-colored kiber cloth, cut decolleté; very handsome.

Mrs. J. Frodenwald, of Baltimore, black silk, jets and diamonds.

Miss Hannah Rosewald, of Alabama, white-silk, pearls.

Mrs. M. Goldenberger, of Baltimore, wore black silk with diamonds.

Miss Emma Strasberger, of Washington, black lace, diamond ornaments.

Mrs. J. B. Singer, of Washington, black satin, with diamonds.

Mrs. Newman, of Washington, black silk, heliotrope waste.

Miss Ben, of Washington, black lace, with jets.

Miss Rothchild, of Washington, black cashmere.

Miss New, of Baltimore, blue cashmere, pearls.

Miss Ruben, of Baltimore, cream satin, ivory green plush trimmings, diamonds; very rich.

Miss S. Ruben, blue satin, multi overdress.

Miss R. Gans, of Washington, black satin, jet and diamonds.

Mrs. Weinberg, of Baltimore, black silk and diamonds.

Mrs. Letterman, of Baltimore, white-shut cloth.

Miss Heidenheimer, of Washington, lavender cashmere, en train.

Miss Minnie Fischer (sister to the groom), black lace over orange satin.

Miss H. Bandheim, black satin, lace, jet ornaments.

Miss R. Goldsmith, of Washington, black silk, jet ornaments.

Mrs. H. Greenbaum, of Washington, black silk and jets.

Miss Tillie Kaufman, of Washington, black lace.

Miss Sarah Ruben, blue satin and tulle.

Mrs. Ahecht, of Baltimore, black silk and diamonds.

Miss Bertha Rosenthal, pale blue satin, pearls.

Miss Cora Blundheim, pink and white lace.

Miss Clara Swartz, blue and pink satin, diamonds.

Miss Edith Swartz, brown silk.

Miss Hannah Gutzberg, white cashmere.

Miss Bertha Kaufman, of Washington, black satin, jet and pearls.

Miss Eva Stern, of Washington, cream satin and lace, diamonds.

Mrs. B. Rubenstein, garnet satin under black lace.

Miss Ida and Bessie Brager were very pretty in rich black silk with jet ornaments.

Miss Stella Kaufman wore white satin.

Miss Hannah Friedenwald, of Alabama, was dressed in white satin with lace, and pearl and diamond ornaments.

Among the gentlemen present were Messrs. Woodward and Lothrop, of Washington; Leteman, of Charlottesville; Ben-Singer, Newmeyer, Strausberger, Ben, Fischer, of Washington; A. J. Waldman, of New York, and Messrs. Moses and Samuel Bandheim, of Richmond.

PERSONAL.—Rev. Dr. John S. Lindsay, who recently accepted a call as the pastor of St. John's P. E. Church, at Bridgeport, Conn., left Georgetown yesterday for that place, and will next Sunday deliver his first sermon there.

Mr. J. E. Tackett has gone to New York, where he will spend the winter.

Mr. J. F. Tackett and daughter, Miss Sophie, have returned from New York, where they have been spending the summer.

Mr. C. J. W. Summers will leave tomorrow for a visit to Dorchester county, Md.

Mrs. G. Powell Hill, whose illness has been mentioned, has entirely recovered.

Col. R. Tinsell, of Manassas, was in the city today.

Mr. Charles Howard, one of the letter carriers, was taken suddenly ill at noon today, and had to be taken to his home, on South Fairfax street. A substitute was placed on his route.

Mr. Edgar Dinwiddie, of Charlottesville, was in the city today.

Mrs. J. S. Dancy Douglas and family, who have been summering in Fauquier county, have returned to their home in this city.

Judge C. E. Stuart has returned from a trip to Northampton county.

Miss Kate Meyer arrived in this city yesterday from Germany, and will in future make her home with the family of her cousin, Mr. George Steenrager.

THE CURRAN TRIAL.—The trial of John Curran, indicted with Billy Williams for the murder of Officer Julian Arnold, in this city, on the night of May 14th last, was commenced in the Corporation Court this morning. Williams, the supposed principal in the affair, has not yet been arrested. Deputy Sergeant Smith, who went to Fauquier county yesterday for a jury, returned this morning with the following twenty-four gentlemen, the first twelve of whom, after the usual preliminaries, were selected to try the case: George W. Burke, H. E. Martin, J. S. Latham, Clarence Jolly, Murray Holtzclaw, R. Minter, Wm. Martin, T. D. Diggs, E. F. Kloman, W. C. Maneyett, W. F. Folken, R. H. Bash, F. J. Lomax, J. B. Flynn, J. R. Carter, Wm. Thom, R. E. Foley, J. M. Pearce, D. E. Graham, C. W. Risdon, Alfred Harner, M. B. Payne, F. C. Brooke, W. B. G. Shumate. The prisoner was represented by Mr. Edmund Burke, and the Commonwealth by Mr. L. Marbury, assisted by Mr. J. M. Johnson. The usual motions to quash the indictment, etc., having been made and overruled, the prisoner was arraigned, when the case was opened by Mr. Marbury, followed by Mr. Burke.

After Mr. Burke's address court took a recess till 3 o'clock.

During the progress of the case all the police officers and those who have been summoned as witnesses were excluded from the room.

Wm. Curran, a brother of the prisoner, was present in court.

Court recessed at 3 o'clock when Dr. Powell called the stand and testified as to the character of the wound received by the deceased, stating that death was the result.

Mr. E. I. Padgett then took the stand and gave a statement of the shooting, an account of which has been published in the GAZETTE. His testimony, as compared with that given at the corner's inquest and at the trial before the Mayor, was somewhat different. He was on the stand when this report closed at 4 o'clock.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and cool, with one prisoner and two lodgers at the station house. The only case before the Mayor this morning was that of George Lucas, arrested by officer Price for being drunk and disorderly. He was fined $2.00.

A warrant was sworn out to search the premises of Wm. Johnson, colored, for a coop of chickens stolen from R. W. Beverly, but the chickens could not be found.

RESTING COMFORTABLY.—Mr. Thomas Pettit, car inspector of the A. & F. railroad, who, as was stated yesterday, fell from a car and was run over and had his left ankle badly mashed, is resting as comfortably as could be expected to day. He was attended at his home on upper Prince street by Dr. Bowman, of Washington, and Dr. Gibson, who pronounced his injury a compound fracture, which however may not necessitate amputation of the foot.

AGAINST THE CITY.—The jury that had been summoned from Fredericksburg in the case of Mrs. Mary J. Young vs. the City Council, for damages to property on account of drainage, yesterday evening rendered a verdict for the plaintiff for $186.67. The suit was for $500, and a previous jury had allowed that amount, but that verdict was set aside by the court. The costs in this case will exceed $150.

THEY WANT A DIVISION.—A meeting of republicans of the Third ward was held last night at which, it is said, the best of harmony did not prevail. It appears that some of the leading colored politicians made a demand for some of the "bottle" which, it is said, has been recently received here and which, it is claimed, is being given out to only a select few—none of whom are colored men. The end is not yet.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge N. B. Meade presiding—Mary J. Young vs. City Council; jury, and verdict for plaintiff for $186.67.

Summers vs. Miller et al., report of commissioner of sale of lot on West street to W. A. Barnett confirmed.

The docket was called and cases sat.

Com. vs. John Curran; indictment for murder, and case in progress.

NEW CORN.—A lot of new white corn from Mattox creek arrived here yesterday, consigned to Messrs. G. H. Robinson's Sons, who sold it on "Change to day to Messrs. Hunt & Roberts for 48 cents per bushel. The corn was of good quality, and in excellent condition.

Rupture radically cured. also pile tumors and fistula. Pamphlet of particulars 10 cents in stamps. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

Boots & Shoes.

I call special attention to my CHEAP TABLE, on which I have placed a lot of goods to be sold at a great reduction, not because the goods are inferior or damaged, but they are goods of which I have no regular lines and sizes.

I have now on hand a complete and well-selected line of BOOTS and SHOES of every description, which I will offer at the very lowest living price. I can offer GOOD, RELIABLE SHOES in any style, suitable for any purpose, durable, well as dressy, from $3 to $5; also lower and higher-priced goods.

I now give my CUSTOMER DEPARTMENT my personal attention, and am better equipped than ever to turn out first-class work. I have just received direct from the importer, a full line of foreign and domestic stock, such as has never before been in Alexandria, and from which I am able to give every one a first-class selection.
